WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 19, 1866.

MINING AS AN INVESTMENT--IT PAYS BETTER IN ENGLAND THAN HERE--SOME OF THE FAULTS OF OUR SYSTEM.

Under the above heading we find in the American Mining Journal of the 10th, the following sensible article on mining which gives some of the true reasons why many of our mining companies are not successful. No person familiar with mining operations in the United States can deny the statements made:

"We have always held that properly managed legitimate mining in this country, is quite as safe as any other business and more remunerative.

Now there are far richer mines in the United States than England ever could boast of. How is it then that in taking the average of our mining share-list, the per-centage computed must be that of loss instead of gain, while in England it is a per-centage of gain, three times as large as that of any other thriving business? The difference between the prices of labor and materials, although a large item, has comparatively little o do with so great a discrepancy. The secret probably lies in the speculative character of American investments in mines. In England people buy to hold; in this country people buy to sell at an advance. In the former case purchasers are willing to bide their time for divi dends; in the latter purchasers are in too much of a hurry to wait for divi dends and very often buy without caring whether they are buying a mine or a brickyard, so long as they can sell at a profit—forgetting that "they who make haste to be rich fall into a snare." This sort of proceeding of course must sap public confidence in remunerativeness of mining, and hence "times are dull," so far as mining is concerned. Other causes for this dullness of times have arisen from this bad speculative system. Many companies have been formed apparently for no other purpose than to provide sinecures for their founders. They make th mselves participes criminis in the swindle. In many other cases where the mines are actually good and are either being opened or regularly worked, even then their management is often so loose as to increase expenses and thus decrease the dividends or swell the assessments. Then the manners of many mining company officers are sufficient to disgust a stockholder and make him abjure mining.

Go to some offices to learn the latest intelligence from the mine, and "ten to one" you will find kidgloved humbugs lounging about as if half-dead with ennui, ogling the girls from the windows, reading some trashy novel, or perchance complacently dreaming of Miss Sophia Tilterhoops, and what would be the most "stunning thing" to wear at the next "hop." State the object of your visit and the Secretary will either drawl out between two lazy whiffs of smoke:—"Ha-a-ave-n't heard a-any-y-thing la-a-a-ter" or exclaim with curt surliness: "nothing new." Too many of these officers forget they are servants, not masters; and often hold back good news or bad, for their own private speculative ends. Even though the mine be good, can stockholders have any confidence in such people? And without confidence in directors, co-operative mining is a farce, a cheat. These are some of the reasons why the mining community complains of "dull times," and why we with our rich mines cannot make anything like so good a showing as the British with their poorer ones. They make sure first that the "mine" is a mine, second that it is in all human probability worth working, third that the management shall be placed in honest and capable hands. Unfortunately the American investor only asks "What's the stock worth?" and "What will it be worth tomorrow?"

From California.

[From the Enterprise.]

San Francisco, Sept. 12.

We are informed on reliable authority that a warrant was issued yesterday afternoon for the arrest of another of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s employees, who is said to be a defaulter to the amount of $25.000. The party had not been found but the detectives were endeavoring to find him.

The Lafayette Homestead Association has filed its certificate of incorporation. Capital stock, $1,000,000

The Standard Soap Company have commenced suit in the Twelfth District Court against Lacy & Hymes, to recover $5.000 damages for an alleged infringement of their trade mark, used in the preparing for market and selling of their concentrated erasive washing powder, and an injunction against its further use. A temporary injunction was granted, upon plaintiff filing a bond in the sum of $5 000.

Andrew M. Jackson, the old mulatto indicted for mayhem, in destroying the sight of his child wife, was on trial in the County Court to day. The case has often been referred to by the public press and is one of the most outrageous ever brought before the criminal courts.

The report of the appointment of Thomas Gray as Naval Officer of the port of San Francisco, vice Noah Brooks, removed, is confirmed. Secretary McCulloch telegraphed Mr. Brooks that Mr. Gray is his successor, and that no change has been made in the office of Surveyor.

HON. Richard C. McCormick, now Governor of Arizona, is still a very young man. He hails from New York City, where he was once a local newspaper reporter, and afterwards became editor of the organ of the Young Men's Christian Association in that city. When United States Senator Nye went out to Nevada as Governor, young McCormick went with him. He became Secretary of Arizona, and is now Governor. He is a fine scholar and ready orator.—Chicago Journal.

THE local editor of the Hannibal, Mo., Daily Courier is the wealthiest newspaper man in the West. He sums up his wordily possessions in this wise: Mrs. Local (par value), $1.000,000; one five years' old Local, $500,000; one seven weeks' old Local, $150.000; cash on hand, 43 cents; due on account, $1: sundries, 18 cents. Total, $1.650,001 55.

COL. Seville, late of the rebel army, has been commissioned a Captain in the regular U. S. Army.

Health of Secretary Seward.

Meeting of the Soldiers' National Convention.

Gen. John E. Wool Chairman.

Affairs in Mexico.

The Austro-Prussian Squabble.

Surmises concerning the Fenians.

Washington, Sept. 17.

Secretary Seward still lies in a critical condition, though the symptoms this morning appear to be favorable.

Per cable:

Vienna, Sept. 16.

The Baron Werther has arrived from Berlin and resumed the duty of Prussian Embassador at the Court of Vienna.

Berlin, Sept. 16.

It is concluded that Prussia will not allow the King of Saxony to take part in the formation of the North German Confederation

Chicago, Sept. 18.

The Soldiers' National Convent on organized at Cleveland yesterday, with Gen. John E. Wool as temporary chairman, who made a long speech, saying slavery had been the disturbing element for thirty years and had been removed by a war bravely fought and gloriously ended; but the same bitterness of feeling which preceded the war was now being revived by the Radicals, who feared losing power, and he thought the sooner the Southern States were restored the better. He said the loss of liberty commences with oppression, and after oppression follows war. The United States as conquerors can afford to be just and magnanimous. The brave are always merciful and generous, as President Johnson said, we have had war enough, let there be peace.

Committees on credentials, etc., being appointed, Gen. Ewing of Kansas made a long speech, and the Convention adourned till to-day.

Private advices from Mexico state that San Louis Potosi is being evacuated by the Imperialists.

The Liberals were fast arming new troops. Regular shipments of arms, clothing, &c., are being received.

Americans are continually arriving and swelling the ranks of the Liberal army.

Every effort was being made, and with much success, to promptly pay for shipments in coin or merchandise. Large orders had been forwarded to agents of the Republic in the United States, mostly for artillery and ammunition, for both the Gulf and the Pacific coast.

The Liberals will immediately fortify all important seaports.

New York, Sept. 17.

The following is a clause in the text of the treaty of peace between Prussia and Austria, signed at Prague, 23d of August, the violation of which has tempted Prussia to cease her disbandment and draw the sword again:

The Emperor of Austria, on his part, consents to the union of Lombardy and the Venetian Kingdom with the Kingdom of Italy, and the Emperor makes no other condition, therefore, that the debts attached to the ceded territory shall be recognized in conformity with the treaty.

The following is the text of Napoleon's letter to the King of Italy, in reference to the cession of Venetia:

MY BROTHER:—I have learned with pleasure that Your Majesty has adhered to the armistice and preliminaries of peace signed by Prussia and Austria. It is, therefore, probable that a new era of tranquility is about to open for Europe.

Your Majesty knows that I have accepted the offer of Venetia, in order to save her from any devastation and prevent useless bloodshed. My intention has always been to restore her to herself in order that Italy may be free from the Alps to the Adriatic.

Venetia will soon be able to express her wishes by universal suffrage. Your Majesty will recognize that in these circumstances the action of France has again been exercised in favor of humanity and the independence of the people. I renew the assurance of the sentiments of high esteem and sincere friendship, with which, I am your Majesty's good brother NAPOLEON.

St. Cloud, Aug. 11.

The Emperor Napoleon had addressed the following letter to the late Minister of Foreign affairs:

My dear M. Drayn de L'Huys: I deeply regret that circumstances oblige me to accept your resignation; in relinquishing however, your coöperation, I am desirous to give you proof of my esteem, by naming you as member of the Privy Council; this new post will possess advantages of not breaking off of those relations which your enlightenment and devotion to myself and my dynasty have rendered precious to me.

Florence, Sept. 15.

The difficulty regarding the Venetian debt is serious. The execution of the treaty signed at Prague is in doubt.

London, Sept. 17.

Consols, 87½; 5-20's 72¼.

Liverpool, Sep. 17.

Breadstuffs flat, with declining tendency.

New York, Sept. 18.

The mortuary report for last week shows 642 deaths, including 67 from cholera.

George H. Briggs the Nassau street bank defaulter has been committed to await the action of the Grand Jury.

It is surmised that the Fenians are about concentrating at Ogdensburg and Malone, and the Canadian Government shows great activity in military preparations.

From Idaho.

The failure of More & Fogus continues to excite much comment. It is believed that their creditors will purchase the mines and mills and put them in operation....Capt. Wm. B. Hughes, late Quartermaster at Fort Boise, has been ordered to Arizona....Things are looking up at Placerville....Blackfoot is dull, many of the miners are leaving for Salt Lake to winter....The "Mormon Prophet," by Mrs. Waite, is meeting with a very brisk sale.

From New York.

From the New York Herald of the 8th, we clip the following: Ex-Governor Stewart, who has so long been confined to his room by a fractured limb, is again out in St. Joseph, but emaciated and feeble.

The violent and lawless proceedings of a band of Radical outlaws in Jackson county are to be suppressed at once by the strong arm of the military. The commander of the U. S. forces at Leavenworth has sent down to Independence two companies of troops and they will remain at that post until Gen Hancock is satisfied that the peace of that part of the country is established, and that all citizens are safe in their persons and property.

Millions of grasshoppers have made their appearance about Kearney, and are devouring everything in the way of vegetation.

A large Mormon train passed Fort Kearney on the 27th inst. Twenty-six fatal cases of cholera had occurred among the Saints since they left the river. There were about thirty cases which were convalescent.

Information of the appointment of Ed. Carroll, Esq., of Leavenworth, as collector in the place of Hon. John Speer, has been received.

Indian outrages are still reported on the Powder River route. There are not enough troops to afford protection to emigrants on that line, but Gen. Sherman will endeavor to get them there as soon as possible. A correspondent on the plains furnishes the Leavenworth Times with the following information:

The valleys of the Smoky Hill, Saline, Solomon, and their tributaries are crowded with emigrants and claim hunters, up to, in some places, beyond the line of Government surveys, and these emigrants would be more numerous, were it not for fear of Indians.

The country surveyed this year will compare favorably, for soil and water, with the best portions of Kansas, timely rains having interspersed during the season. The prairies are matted over with a thick and rank growth of Buffalo and other grasses. The buffalo, elk and other game were very plentiful, and in splendid condition.

The Arrapahoe Indians, under their chief, Little Raven, are encamped on the Big Bend of the Arkansas. Little Raven strongly objected to surveying the country. The Cheyennes, under Black Kettle, are on Big Creek, and were independent. They are awaiting Col. Wynkoop and the $97,000 appropriated by the last Congress as an offset to Sand Creek, and will be partially peaceable up to that time. Other small bands of Sioux, Dog Warriors, Pawnees, &c., are roaming on the Saline and Solomon, and are not very friendly. During the last three months, fifteen or sixteen white men have been killed on the last named river, and only a few days ago all the settlers above Pipe Creek on the Solomon, were peremptorily ordered to leave. Some left; the majority have remained, determined to fight for their homes.

The nomination of Hon. Wm. B. Allison for re-election to Congress, in the Third District of Iowa, completes the list of Republican candidates for the State. They are James F. Wilson in the Frst District; Hiram Price in the Second; Mr. Allison in the Third; Judge Loughbridge in the Fourth; Gen Dodge in the Fifth, and A. W. Hubbard in the Sixth.

FIGHT BETWEEN AN ELEPHANT AND ITS TRAINER.—THE LATTER KILLED.—Alfred Moffat, of equestrian notoriety in England, who, for the past five years, has been performing Richard Bell's two elephants, was killed at Morat, Switzerland, on June 28th, while performing with Bell & Meyers's Circus Company. The elephant had some trouble with the groom a short time previous. Mr Moffas tried to subdue the beast by laying about him with his spear and tomahawk, and compelled him to kneel down to him to fasten the chain round his neck. Mr. Moffat kept the spear in the animal's ear while he was doing this, but had to turn his back to the brute while he took a chain from off his leg. Just at that moment the elephat rose to his feet, and Moffat, who had hold of the handle of the spear, which was still fastened to the animal's ear, was raised from the ground; the elephant then commenced turning his head backwards and forwards until he got Moffat in front of him, then seized him with his trunk and threw him about twenty feet in the air, and, as he was coming down, caught him with his tusks and gored him to the ground.—Moffat still had presence of mind to call the animal by name, and while on the ground said, "Go back, Palm;" but at that moment the infuriated animal put his foot on Moffat's breast and killed him almost instantaneously. The female elephat, seeing her keeper and trainer being mangled, ran at the male elephant and gored him with her head; then with the assistance of the members of the equestrian company, Moffat was got away from his enemy, but he was no more—life had flown at the time mentioned above. The female then went back into the stables, and seemed to try to get the male elephant to do the same, but in spite of all, he would not go in; he appeared quite wild, and he commenced (as if through revenge) to tear Moffat's coat, which lay on the ground, pulling it into a thousand pieces and then eating it. The company tried about three hours to get him in the stables, but they could not do it, either by force or kindness. At last the female came to the stable door and commenced crying, which drew him to her. She then closed the door after him and seeming quite sensible of what had happened, placed herself at the door so that he could not get out again. During this time Messrs. Bell & Meyers had sent for a cannon to shoot the monster. For eight long hours the female elephant stood sentry at the station door, guarding it with her own body by the word of command from the groom. George Mason, who has always fed and cleaned the animals, and drove them on the road from town to town, and whose life a time or two had been saved by Mr. Moffat. At last the cannon arrived, and was at once placed in a position near the stable door. George Mason then called the female elephant away from the door, and the male then came out, and the word "fire" being given, a six-pound ball from the cannon made a hole right through his body, and he fell on the very spot where he killed his trainer.

The Daily Union Vedette.

Local and Miscellaneous.

TO ADVERTISERS.—The VEDETTE is the pioneer daily newspaper of Utah. Its immense circulation in every mining camp and city in Montana and Idaho, (to which it gives the latest graphic despatches a whole week ahead of the Pacific papers,) makes it the most advantageous medium for advertising in these four Central Territories.

O. J. GOLDRICK, traveling solicitor, for VEDETTE subscriptions and advertisements, through the Pacific States and Territories.

WANTED.—A girl to do general housework. Apply to Mrs Gen P. E. Connor.

THE person who took a catalogue of the University of Michigan from the VEDETTE office is requested to return the same.

THE Omaha Herald of the 7th says Ben. Holladay, the President of the H. O. M. E. Co. has sent ahead of him a magnificently fitted-up coach to convey Mm Overland to California on business connected with the company.

CAUTION.—Great care should be observed by all persons writing letters and sending them through the Post Office. In the first place they must be prepaid, and Postage not Revenue stamps must be used. We are informed by the Post Master that there are now a number of letters retained at the office and cannot be forwarded until the above requisitions are complied with.

THE Santa Fe Gazette says Col. Pfiefer has declined to accept the sub-Agency for the Utah Indians, that was proffered to him by the Secretary of the Interior.

PERSONAL.—Yesterday we received a call from Mr. O. M. Clayes, proprietor of the Stockton Independent, who is spending a few days in the City of the Saints. Mr. C. is one of the oldest and most successful newspaper men in the State of California.

MARRIED.—In Great Salt Lake City, Sept. 16th, '65, by Hon. J. Titus, A. Fleming, Hospital Steward U. S. A., to Miss P. P. Ford.

California papers please copy.

THE Leavenworth Times of the 4th says:

The prairie was on fire to-day in the west, some five miles from this place, and as the wind was high, it is feared much damage was done. There has been no rain here for several weeks. Weather quite warm.

About thirty of Ben. Holladay's coaches, with stock, passed through here yesterday, to stock the Omaha line from Manhattan to Denver. The Indians seem to be quiet on this route.

DENNIS O'Neal, a barber of Virginia City, Nev., while under the influence of chloroform which is a part of the exercises of a Russian steam bath, sprang from the window of Dr. Dash's Bath House and fell a distance of 38 feet.—O'Neal says he was thrown out, but the Doctor says he jumped out, and also denies the administering of chloroform. Dennis walked home, complaining only of a little soreness in the limbs.

MILWAUKIE, Wis., boasts of a population exceeding fifty thousand souls. Her importations last season amounted to fifty thousand tons of Eastern merchandise. The wheat receipts were over twelve millions of bushels.

THE Omaha Republican announces the death of R. M. Trumbull, Esq., receiver of the U. S. Land Office. Mr. Trumbull was a brother of Senator Trumbull of Illinois, and was highly esteemed by his fellow citizens. He was appointed to office by President Lincoln, five years ago.

THE assignees of the Columbus Golden Age printing office advertise that establishment at public sale on the 18th instant.

WE learn from the New Orleans Commercial that it is intended to bring the remains of Dr. Dostie to Chicago, and give him a grand burial.

GENERAL Sherman and his brother, the Hon. John Sherman, Senator from Ohio, were received and entertained by the citizens of Denver on the 11th inst. The News gives a glaring account of the supper and ball. The following toasts were received with great enthusiasm and eloquently responded to:

OUR DISTINGUISHED GUEST.—The record of his martial achievements, his heroic fortitude and constancy, his splendid valor and devotion, constitutes one of the brightest pages of our National History. Colorado unites with our common country in placing the laurel upon his brow.

OUR DISTINGUISHED GUEST, HON. JOHN SHERMAN.—A champion of liberty in the Senate House, as his brother in the field, he receives the homage of our respectful applause. Happy the people whose institutions afford the spectacle of such august companionship.

Lieut. Gen. Sherman has gone to Fort Garland.

The News, also, says:

A large number of coaches arrived in the city, yesterday, for stocking the new daily line on the Rocky Mill route.—Denver is to be the depot of the Holladay overland business, and the shops and other buildings necessary for manufacture and repair of their coaches and express wagons, are to be erected immediately. We understand that the company own property near the planing mill, on which these buildings are to be placed.

California News.

The suit of Richard Chevery vs. W. T. Coleman for $37,000 is still progressing. The claim is for non-fulfillment of contract.....The Sacramento State Fair opened on the 19th. Lothers won the winning horse in the trotting match; time 2.35—2.34—2.34. The pacing race was won by Young American; time 2.32—2.27½—2.32½.....California will export this year 250,000 tons of grain, that being the largest crop on record, after supplying all requirements for home consumption.....A man named Hunter was stabbed by a negro at Big Oak Flat on the 9th inst.....In Humboldt county Albert H Hitchcock was caught between a log he was unloading from a truck and the roll way, and instantly crushed to death.

THE following extract is from a communication addressed to the New York Tribune by one of the quarantine officers of that port:

"The Mormon emigrants all arrive in London about the same time, and before embarkation they are all inspected. After getting through with the farce of inspection—not a single one being rejected, old or young, lame, blind, or crippled—they are put on board. Then commences the routine of sea life. They are divided off into four grand divisions, presided over by four Elders. Each division is again divided into messes of about twenty, each also presided over by an officer appointed by the ruling Elder. And now commences the real practical part of the whole affair, so far as Brigham's agents are concerned. A Committee appointed by the ruling Elder takes charge of all property belonging to the passengers on the ship, which no man can reach without a permit. Next, arrangements are made for the payment of the passage money. The converts are all assembled, and the following little programme is unfolded: The Elders are to pay all expenses from London to New York, and from New York to Salt Lake City; the same to include inland transportation, and the necessaries of life on the way, the money to be drawn from the general fund.—They also find it necessary to appropriate a certain sum from the aforesaid general fund to pay contingent expenses, which includes the Elders' hotel bills, etc. After deducting from each man's account his expenses, the balance is handed back to him—when he gets it. During the voyage, particular care is taken to instruct them in the New Gospel, and the temptations that lay in their way, especially in New York City, which appears to be a great thorn in the side of the Elders. They warn them, especially the young women, to beware of the Gentiles in New York, that they will entice them away under the pretense of friendship, and then rob them—rob them of what they had been already robbed of by these very men. The bark Cayour recently arrived with a load of them, and an eye-witness that saw them during the passage, says the passengers slept together irrespective of sex, and they appeared to have no regard whatever for the sacred rites of marriage, and they were so dirty and filthy that the stench arising from them was sickening, and that several died during the passage to this port on account of the filth. In fact, of late they have been refused the privilege of occupying Castle Garden, on account of their filthy and indecent habits.

CHARGES AGAINST THE JEWS.—The Jewish Chronicle relates the following:

"Bucharest was, on the 30th of July, the scene of the most disgraceful riots and outrages. The Legislature having passed Article II of the Constitution, which granted the Jews political and civil rights, a fanatical crowd on that day invaded the chamber, and by intimidation obtained the repeal of the obnoxious Article. Not satisfied with this victory, the populace threw itself upon the newly-erected temple, a fine building, which is quite an ornament to the city, pillaged it and stripped it of all its contents. The rioters then marched to the synagogue, where the sacred scrolls of the law were profaned, and everything in it demolished. The tumult lasted the whole night, during which the terrified Jews had to remain shut up in their houses in order to escape the violence of the mob. When the authorities at last interposed, the work of desecration and pillage had been accomplished. The Russian Consul was most active in his humane efforts to protect the Jews who claimed nationality. The other Consuls suggested to the terror-stricken Jewish population officially to claim their protection; but the humane offer has from prudential consideration been declined.
